

I am vehemently opposed to any change of FCC ownership rules that will permit further concentration of ownership of radio and television stations.